DUPONT GOES TO COURT

Testimony began Wednesday in U.S. District Court in Laurel in the case of Strong vs. DuPont DeLisle. Below: Plaintiffs attorney Al Hopkins, left; plaintiff Glen Strong; attorney Al Stewart; and Strong's wife Connie listen to remarks.

Attorneys for the plaintiff say company at fault for his cancer

BY BENNIE

For the handful of people listening to evidence in a trial that will decide whether the DuPont DeLisle plant is responsible for Bay St. Louis resident Glen Strong's cancer, their lives have likely changed no matter what the verdict.

Plaintiff's attorneys last week presented evidence of dioxins and heavy metals in their client's blood, the soil around his house, and even the dust on his ceiling fan.

Strong's attorneys said the evidence proves at the least poor judgment — and at the worst, negligence — on the part of DuPont DeLisle in informing both regulatory agencies and the community about the dangers of toxic waste emitted by the plant, hoping to convince the nine jurors that DuPont should take responsibility for Strong's illness.

Strong is one of around 2,000 people who claim that toxic emissions from the plant are responsible for their cancers, neurological disorders, birth defects in their children and more. DuPont DeLisle had maintained adamantly that they are not responsible. The

Aldermen impose six-month moratorium on high-rise projects

BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

Waveland Aldermen joined Bay St. Louis Councilmen Wednesday night when they passed a six-month moratorium on the issuance of any permits for high-rise condominium development in the city. Bay St. Louis passed a similar resolution at the end of May.

On Monday, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors voted to accept 300 petitions presented by Ellis Anderson, a spokeswoman for the Coastal Community Watch group, which is in opposition to any high-rise development along the coast. Supervisors took no further action on the issue.

Mayor Tommy Longo said on Saturday that the Waveland resolution applied to high-rise development only. He said he was confident in the city's ability to handle future development.

"We are in the draft stages of a city-wide comprehensive plan and the plan

Hancock schools get high marks in state tests

Board, superintendent agree on little else

BY GEOFF BELCHER

Hancock County School Board meetings have become increasingly contentious over the past few months, but both board members and Superintendent for Education David Kopf paused on Thursday to agree on one thing: Hancock County's students performed very well in the latest round of state testing.

The Waveland Police Department took a little time out from busting crime on Thursday to help local kids get started on the right foot toward a good education, donating more than $700 in school supplies to Waveland Elementary. Investigator Brent Anderson said the funds for the supplies were raised through the department's "Shop With a Cop" program at its annual golf tournament and by private donations. "This generous donation will benefit all of the children at Waveland Elementary," school principal Rebecca Ladner, Ph.D., said. "Thank you again to the Waveland Police Department for making a difference in the lives of so many children. Pictured are Investigator Brent Anderson, left; Chief James Varnell; students Austin Cortell, Omiha Williams and Emily Favre; Assistant Chief Mike Pendergast; and principal Rebecca Ladner, Ph.D. To participate in this year's golf tournament to contribute to the Shop With a Cop program, contact the Waveland Police Department at 467-3669.

Blood drive to be held in Rutherford's honor

Hancock Medical Center will host a blood drive on Thursday, Aug. 25, in memory of John Rutherford for his dedication to saving others through blood donations. The drive will take place on the Red Cross bloodmobile at the front entrance of the hospital located at 149 Drinkwater in Bay St. Louis from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.

Donors will be able to sign a memory book that will be presented to his family. Blood donors will also receive a free t-shirt and will be entered into a drawing to win a one-week stay at the Verandas Condominium on Pensacola Beach. This $2 million dollar condo sleeps eight and donors will be automatically entered in the drawing just by giving blood.

Summer may be winding down but the critical shortage of blood donors continues as back to school activities and last minute vacations distract people from giving blood. Although the American Red Cross tries to keep a 3-day supply of all blood types on hand for patients in our region, supplies of blood types O Positive, O Negative, B Positive and B Negative are between a half-day to 1 day supply.

Donors who gave blood on June 29th at the Radio for Red Cross blood drive at Casino Magic in Bay St. Louis are eligible to give again as of August 24th. For more information on giving blood, sponsoring a Red Cross blood drive or volunteer opportunities with the Red Cross, please call the American Red Cross at 896-2217 or 1-800-GIVELIFE. To schedule an appointment to donate blood, call Kathleen Quintini-Cook at 467-8683.

Failure to re-register lands sex offender in jail

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

A Hancock County man was lodged in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility Thursday for failure to re-register his address as a sex offender, Sheriff Steve Garber reports.

Criminal Investigator Rita Blaize-Watson said, "Danny Ray Brockington, 34, failed to notify the Mississippi Department of Public Safety of his current address. On March 23, at 3:22 p.m., I checked at the address of 116 Royal Street, Waveland, which was reported to the Department of Public Safety. His wife Joanne, at that visit told me they were still together, but he had not lived there for four or five months," Blaize-Watson stated.

Blaize-Watson said that it is a felony in Mississippi for sex offenders who do not register their current address.

Brockington was reported as being wanted by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department in The Echo in July for failure to re-register as a sex offender. He was originally convicted of carnal knowledge of a juvenile in Slidell, LA, in that report by Blaize-Watson.

Thursday, Brockington was lodged in the Hancock jail with no bond and also faces a local burglary charge, in addition St. Tammany Parish has placed a hold on him, Blaize-Watson said.

Among the jobs of Blaize-Watson at the Hancock County Sheriff's office, is to keep track of registered sex offenders. She said, "One of the things I do is to the addresses to check if they reside there."

Condos -- moratorium addresses condominium development," said Longo. "Now we plan to pull this out and look at this issue more specifically-put it at the top of the list."

"We already have hydraulic computer models that address future needs for sewer and water service and are working with the Corps of Engineers on a model for drainage," Longo said. "We feel we are miles ahead with addressing future development."

Waveland city attorney Zach Butterworth strongly advised the passing of the resolution to give the city time to do some planning. Anderson said she and other members of the group were surprised and thrilled by the move. The suggestion of the moratorium at a previous meeting was met with little interest.

"We're thrilled that the Aldermen were responsive to the idea of a moratorium," said Anderson. "It's a great thing to see so many people wanting to participate in local government again and their elected officials working with them."

"The moratorium will give us all a little breathing room," she continued. "Hopefully, in this time, our local officials can work together with citizens input and the help of planning consultants to come up with some sort of comprehensive plan to deal with the high-density developments."

"The ultimate goal is to keep the identity of our wonderful paradise intact. In the long run, we'll all prosper while maintaining our quality of life here."

County planning and zoning officials and supervisors have given their approval to ten high-rise condominium projects in a newly set aside commercial resort district near Bayou Caddy. Currently no sewer or water services exist in the area. Developers are working with county representatives to try to come up with a plan to provide those services. Providing wastewater service alone could cost $10 million to $20 million.

Cuevas' Quotes

End of an era

The talk around Bay St. Louis' Downtown is the upcoming closure of the "Downtown Station" post office.

"Downtown Station" post office users received a notice this week from Bay Postmaster Rickey Harrell, telling the customers the downtown facility will be closing.

As many of you know, the post office was on Main Street for almost 100 years before it moved to the highway at the Bay St. Louis-Waveland line.

When the move occurred many of the area's small businesses did not follow, but went to the "Downtown Station" which at first was on North Second Street at De Montluzin Avenue, then to its current location on Main Street.

One thing I really know for sure is the inconvenience of having to change post office box numbers for a business.

Just think how many offices occupy the Hancock County Court House; well, they all use the "Downtown Station." Talk about some expenses to change all of their stationary, and guess who will foot the bill.

The first person to mention the closure to me was James McDonald of W.A. McDonald & Sons on Monday. He told me that he had just finished replacing all of his company's stationary with the old box number.

In all probability, the post office will recognize the old address for a short time, but, for how long.

A business like McDonald's that has been around for over 100 years is known throughout the U.S., and could be receiving mail addressed the old way for years.

Who knows, if enough folks want the "Downtown Station" and let it be known to the 'powers to be,' possibly the closing could be avoided.

If you are looking for something different to do on Saturday evening of the Labor Day weekend, you may want to visit Stennis Space Center's Community Day activities. This big event takes place Saturday, September 3, at 5 p.m. with gates opening at 4 p.m.

Guests are welcome to bring lawn chairs, blankets and picnic dinners to the family-oriented event. Food and drink vendors will also be available.

Stennis organizations including NASA, Navy NOAA, resident agencies and support contractors will have exhibits and demonstrations. There will also be NASA astronauts, tours of the rocket test complex, Astro Camp activities for children, stage performances, etc.

Pass are required and can be secured from the Chambers of Commerce in Hancock and Pearl River counties; and Slidell, and the Launch Pad adjacent to the Hancock I-10 Welcome Center.

For further information, call 228-688-2370 or 1-800-237-1821.

Good shepherds offer good grazing

My wife Tricia and I keep goats at our place near Jackson. As many Mississippians know, goats are affectionate, thrifty, hard-working animals.

If you provide a goat with water and a good home, the goat will return the favor, grazing on your property, eating it clean of any pesky weeds, vines and briars.

Our economy is kind of like that, too. If government understands and respects taxpayers, tries to be good and fair to them, if it creates a welcome home for entrepreneurs, the rewards can be many.

Those sticky briars of unemployment, inflation and skyrocketing interest rates are easily devoured by busy workers, free-spending consumers and profitable businesses.

In the Senate, we've recently passed a number of bills aimed at giving businesses and taxpayers plenty on which to graze, making them feel more at home in America, encouraging the private sector to reinvest and create jobs, and gobbling up vines bad for the economy before they can grow.

Payroll employment in June increased by 146,000 jobs nationwide, capping 25 consecutive months of gains, totaling 3.7 million new jobs. Though unemployment is just five percent, we want to get that number even lower and have been working on several new bills to complement the President's continued commitment to tax relief.

* The energy bill passed by Congress last month, by no means perfect, is America's first national energy policy. It caps a six-year effort by the Senate to pass a comprehensive energy plan that will help secure our economy by making America less dependent on foreign oil and by encouraging more domestic energy production.

* CAFTA, the Central American Free Trade Agreement, will open new markets to American goods, reducing heavy tariffs, giving American farmers and manufacturers new leverage in the lucrative Central American market.

* The budget, passed earlier this year, promotes economic growth by cutting taxes even more, keeping us on track to halve America's deficit by 2009.

* Class action reform, another recent legislative accomplishment, will help curtail frivolous lawsuits which threaten American jobs.

* Finally, bankruptcy reform, recently signed into law following Congressional passage, will help ensure that folks with good credit who pay their bills, no longer w...

* Those who interest... which Congress be the impetus making will end of million construction jobs as business highway veins growth. Some Washington value America preneur working these.

DuPont should come clean on its pollution

Dear editor,

A peer-reviewed scientific study published in The Journal of Shellfish Research has linked toxic levels of heavy metal contamination in Mississippi oysters to pollution discharges from DuPont's DeLisle titanium-dioxide plant. A trial begins this week for the first of 2,000 plaintiffs who have alleged DuPont's toxic releases have caused widespread illness and death in the area.

The DuPont DeLisle Plant is number one in Mississippi for toxic releases, and first in the entire country for releases in the following categories:

* Releases more highly toxic dioxin/dioxin-like compounds in onsite "non-hazardous-regulated" landfills by far than any other industrial plant in the U.S., - a total of 15,044 grams (33.1 pounds) for year 2003. After saying for years that it doesn't release the most harmful type of dioxin, recently DuPont was forced to admit that it is releasing TCDD (the ingredient in Agent Orange that has caused so many health problems), which is extremely toxic even in very small doses.

* DuPont DeLisle is first in the U.S. for the amount of onsite landfill disposal of octachlorostyrene and hexachlorobenzene—both of which are Persistent Bioaccumulative Toxic substances (PBTs). EPA says, "These PBT chemicals are of particular concern not only because they are toxic but also because they remain in the environment for long periods of time, are not readily destroyed, and build up or accumulate in body tissue."

* First in the country for all PBTs disposed of in deep injection wells.

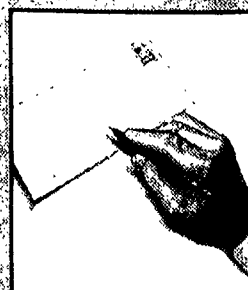

* The largest discharger in the U.S. of 2,2-dichloro, 1,1,1-trifluorethane, a compound which destroys the ozone layer in the upper atmosphere.

How has DuPont responded to concerns about its emissions? Currently they are in the middle of a $100-million expansion project that includes a permit allowing a 16 percent production increase approved earlier this year, and a current permit application to increase production by another 8 percent.

Letters to the Editor

Our letters policy

The Sea Coast Echo welcomes comments from its readers. Letters must be signed and include address or telephone number. Letters should be typed, preferably typewritten and double-spaced. Only one letter per writer per month. The editor reserves the right to edit or reject letters. Letters of thanks, expressions of appreciation and political endorsements are inappropriate.

DuPont is trying to put a positive spin on their expansion requests by saying that the amount of pollution being produced PER TON will go down. Does DuPont think that people don't get it? Even if you reduce pollution per ton (and you are the only one reporting and verifying your results since the MS Dept. of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) doesn't independently test or verify what is reported), if you increase production, overall you increase pollution.

While DuPont says overall air emissions will decrease, this expansion will bring in more train cars of chlorine gas, and result in more toxins released into the wastewater, onsite landfills, and deep injection wells. This means more risks and pollution to an already toxin saturated community.

The new permit is PSD (Prevention of Significant Deterioration—a threshold from where a permit application is consider a major new source of additional pollution) for a number of significant pollutants. The increased emissions include a 78-ton per year increase in Particulate Matter, a 157-ton increase in nitrogen oxide, and a 52-ton increase in sulfuric acid.

People are tired of the

Letters -- DuPont

double-talk. The project currently proposed actually significantly increases the types of pollution that cause ozone pollution, even though the Coast has already received an "F" grade for ozone air pollution by the American Lung Association.

Each day that the DuPont DeLisle plant operates, the plant releases more heavy metals, dioxin and other pollution into the bay, the air, and their onsite waste dumps. DuPont has no limits for the amount of dioxin it discharges to the air and water.

Another issue is disposing of these wastes in a non-hazardous waste landfill. At DuPont's titanium titanium-dioxide facility in Edge Moor, Delaware, these same types of wastes are required to be disposed of in a hazardous waste landfill. Why isn't the same protection required here in Mississippi?

DuPont also proposes using some additional Hazardous Air Pollutant (HAP) additives. In the "Retrospective" PSD permit issued June 8, 2004, DuPont agreed to restrict the use of additives containing HAP. However, "in response to market demand, DuPont would like the ability to use such additives."

Despite significant public opposition voiced in petitions, letters, and comments made at the public hearing on the expansions approved in June, MDEQ issued the permits largely as originally proposed. One exception was that MDEQ put a re-opener clause on the permits pending the final conclusions of the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR) evaluation of dioxin impacts on public health. ATSDR recommended that crabs in the bay be tested. Crabs can't metabolize dioxin, and so levels in crabs can be two to three times higher than other marine animals. That makes crabs the ideal sentinel species to test to see if DuPont dioxin is building up in our seafood.

MDEQ originally said that it would do crab testing, but has now decided against further testing. What good is it does to have a re-opener clause on dioxin if the MDEQ isn't going to do the studies necessary to evaluate the risk?

It is time for DuPont, which admits to releasing 500 millions pounds of toxics in DeLisle in the past 25 years, to clean up its act. It should not be permitted to expand before changing the inherently dirty manufacturing processes that are exposing its workers and the local residents to unacceptable health risks.

A public hearing on the new permit application is scheduled at 7 p.m. Thursday, August 25, at the West Harrison Civic Center, on 4670 Espy Road, Long Beach. In addition to the PSD permit, DuPont is also applying for a Title V permit, which is an overall air permit for the plant. The public is urged to closely evaluate these proposed permits that could impact the amount of pollution the community is exposed to from this plant for many years to come.

longer will have to subsidize those who don't with higher interest payments.

* The Highway Bill, which I co-authored and which was passed by Congress last month, could be the biggest economic impetus yet. In addition to making our roads safer, it will encourage the creation of millions of additional construction jobs, as well as jobs associated with new businesses which depend on highways as America's veins of commerce and growth.

Some liberals in Washington don't always value the taxpaying American worker or entrepreneur, and they're usually working against bills like these. When they look at small businessmen and women in middle America or at taxpaying workers, they don't see American businesses and employees as assets of America but as adversaries of government. Instead of allowing America's entrepreneurs to graze on fertile grounds, they try to hem them in with high taxes, over-regulation and unnecessary bureaucratic burdens. That's when the weeds, briars and vines take over.

The Washington beltway crowd would do well to learn a lesson from nature that applies to animals and humans alike. When people are treated right, when government gives America's workers and businesses more on which to graze, Americans can more easily keep the scourge of unemployment, inflation and high interest rates at bay with their incredible appetite for hard work, ingenuity and determination.

DPS kicks off 'You Drink & Drive, You Lose' campaign

The Mississippi Department of Public Safety today kicked off "You Drink & Drive, You Lose." The federally funded campaign, the fourth in three years, will run through Labor Day and includes an advertising blitz and enforcement patrols aimed at raising the public's awareness of the ills of impaired driving.

Lawmakers reduced the legal alcohol limit in Mississippi from 0.1 to 0.08 in 2002. In the three years since, the state has seen a 16 percent reduction in the number of adult DUI arrests and a 27 percent reduction in the number of under-aged DUI arrests.

"These decreases show a positive shift in the popular attitude toward impaired driving. However, with nearly 74 DUI arrests per day, it's obvious we still have plenty of work ahead of us," said Assistant Public Safety Commissioner Marvin E. Curtis, Jr.

The "You Drink & Drive, You Lose" campaign is federally funded, so the DPS does not incur additional expenses for running it.

"With the grant, we will be able to pay overtime to 30 additional troopers each day of the enforcement period. Troopers working this detail will maintain checkpoints and roving patrols during the campaign," said Lt. Col. Donnell Berry, Chief of the Uniformed Division of the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

First-offense DUI carries a $250 to $1,000 fine, up to 48 hours in jail and a driver's license suspension for up to 90 days. Second-offense DUI carries a $600 to $1,500 fine, five days to a year in jail, a driver's license suspension for two years and 10 hours of community service. Three or more DUI offenses within a five-year period constitute a felony, which is punishable by a $2,000 to $5,000 fine, one to five years in jail, a driver's license suspension for five years and impoundment of all vehicles registered to the offender.

DuPont -- trial begins

suit, filed in December of 2002 in Jones County, began with jury selection on Wednesday. A verdict is expected before Labor Day.

The battle began even before opening statements last week when DuPont attorneys objected to an inner office e-mail which talked about the very large amounts of dioxins being found. Plaintiff's attorney's said the e-mail was important because, privately, the company spoke of very large amounts of the toxic substance, while publicly, they spoke of trace amounts of the same substance.

Judge Billy Landrum set the tone of the upcoming arguments by telling DuPont attorneys that they had been given plenty of time to go over exhibits and object earlier: "You waited 'til this morning to file and now you are wasting my time and the jury's time, the exhibit will be allowed," Landrum said.

As the trial progressed - with DuPont's attorneys continuing to object both to testimony, exhibits and witnesses - Landrum frequently repeated the words "over ruled".

"I told the people we are going to do this no matter what," Landrum told DuPont attorneys as they objected to expert witness James Tarr. "You had plenty of opportunity to establish your objections ... is that what you intend to do, what I told you not to do ... I was here anytime you needed me to raise objections to these experts and now you want to hold court while the jury sits in the jury room ... this man will be allowed to testify."

Strong and his wife Connie looked on as plaintiff's attorney Al Hopkins told jurors in opening arguments that toxic materials had traveled the approximately five-and-a-half miles from the plant and blanketed the Strong residence and everything in between with a layer of deadly chemicals. Those chemicals have entered the soil, humans, the Bay of St. Louis and the food chain, Stewart told the jury.

Whether it be the more deadly TCDD, recently found at the plant site, or other forms of dioxins and dioxin-like compounds, he said, "we will present evidence to show that they act in the same way on the human body. These compounds are so dangerous that even a tenth of a gram must be reported."

Later, plaintiff's expert witness Rod Conner demonstrated just how small a tenth of a gram is by emptying a packet of sweet and low into his hand and dividing out a tenth of it.

"A tenth of a gram is so small and these chemicals are so toxic that this must be reported to the TRI (Toxic Registry Index)," Conner said.

"DuPont is going to come into court and say that their dioxins do not hurt you," said Hopkins. "But they misrepresent the facts to the press, to governmental agencies, and to the public. Privately they talk about very large amounts, publicly they talk about trace amounts ... former plant manager Aldo Morel will admit that ore dust is dangerous and that a lot of dioxins are emitted to the community ... DuPont environmental consultant Linda Bernard will admit that her number on the dioxins produced at the plant is an estimate, and that she is not sure if it is right or wrong. You will see evidence that DuPont knew or should have known that the process was polluting with cancer-causing agents and instead of warning the public, they kept it quiet."

Defense attorney Debbie Kuchler reminded the jury that because Strong brought the suit, that the burden of proof lay with his attorneys.

"DuPont does not have to prove anything," Kuchler said. "The only witnesses who will say there is proof will be the paid witnesses."

"The case is about whether DuPont caused Mr. Strong's cancer and the answer is no," said Kuchler. She told the jury that evidence presented by plaintiff's attorneys will be used to distract them from the only thing the case is about - whether DuPont is directly responsible.

"This case is not about whether dioxins are bad for humans, whether they are found at the plant, or whether DuPont is a good or bad company," said Kuchler. "Under law, they are not responsible if they did not cause it. The law does not require a company to be right, 100 percent right, just to act reasonably."

Kuchler said the defense will present evidence from some of Strong's own doctors who will testify that the cause of Strong's illness, multiple myeloma, is unknown. DuPont will also present evidence to dispute Dr. Ralph's Elston's study of area oysters which reported high levels of dioxins and heavy metals, Kuchler said. Chemical profiles from Strong's blood tests do not match chemical profiles from the plant, Kuchler said.

In a videotaped deposition, plaintiff's attorneys presented Bernard with an inner office e-mail correspondence between four DuPont employees: Terry Finch, Ken Cook, Gary Ruff and Doug Lottes. Bernard said she had never seen the correspondence. One e-mail mentions arsenic production at the plant as a human health problem.

Another e-mail from Lottes to Finch and Ruff advises them that Lottes will keep the problem "under his hat." Cook advises Finch in another e-mail that "we do have a problem based on human health toxicity that will be expensive and hard to solve with technology," Finch recommends a records search at MDEQ. "Ask someone else to inquire as to not draw attention to the site (DeLisle). ... "We can't even mention DeLisle and chance pushing MDEQ into action," the e-mail continued.

Stewart asked Bernard what she would have done if she had been aware of the situation. "I personally would have made a report," Bernard said.

Bernard went on to say that a reported 0.0 grams of dioxin reported on a TRI report was based on calculations from another titanium dioxide plant at Edgemore, Delaware. Though that number may have been wrong, Bernard said, she reported the number at the advice of a company attorney.

Expert James Tarr showed the jury maps which he said modeled the dispersion of particulate matter from emission stacks at DuPont to various locations in the area. Just where and how much of the particulate matter falls on a certain area depends on many factors, said Tarr, such as wind direction and weather conditions. Earlier tests of house dust done by plaintiff's attorneys showed signs of dioxins and other chemicals as far as nine miles from the plant, the testing area.

Conner said that weather is one of the many factors that can effect the chemical makeup of the released toxins also. Once created, dioxins and dioxin-like compounds can encounter any number of factors that can cause chemical reactions. These reactions can cause furans to change to dioxins or various dioxins to change to other dioxins, he said.

This would explain why there are many different chemical profiles at the plant and why there are many different chemical profiles in soil and other samples taken around the community, Conner said. Contrary to what DuPont has reported, Conner said, samples taken at the plant clearly show that there is no fingerprint or set chemical profile at the site. And, Conner said, contrary to the company's "estimates" of the amount of dioxin produced, he believes that the estimate is very much lower than the actual amount they do produce.

The company tells the public that dioxins are everywhere and produced naturally through trash burning and with diesel fuel, said Conner, but it would take 265,000 people burning trash 24 hours a day all year to produce the dioxins found in just one of the samples taken from the plant. Automobile exhaust accounts for less than one-tenth of one percent of the general level of dioxins, he said.

Expert witness and dioxin authority Barry Dellinger told the jury at the close of the day Friday that dioxins are also present in the DuPont DeLisle plant's finished product, TiO₂, titanium dioxide. DuPont attorney's objected to the testimony and were over ruled. The trial will continue next week.

Bay bashes Biloxi in v-ball; OLA sweeps Oak Grove

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
Staff Writer

The Bay High Lady Tigers finally played their first home volleyball match on Thursday, August 18th. The Lady Tigers (4-1) defeated the Lady Indians of Biloxi 25-13, 25-14 and 25-13 to sweep the match.

Bay High head coach Gina Pepperman stated, "We are not there yet but we are working very hard to get to where we need to be. There are still some adjustments being made but I was pleased with the performance on the court tonight."

The Lady Tigers were not threatened in any of the three games. Bay High assistant coach Debbie Adams commented, "There are a lot of players contributing to our success right now. The offense is coming around but not where we want it to be. Tamara Reed is taking control and running the floor. Lindsay Trotter is passing well while Jessica Johnson and Hannah Johnson hit the ball well tonight. Destiny Flood hit it hard from the outside."

Flood and Reed led the Lady Tigers with 6 kills each while Hannah Johnson and Jessica Johnson each added 5 kills. Reed finished the game with 20 assists.

The OLA Crescents (6-0) hit the road to Hattiesburg on Thursday to tangle with the Lady Warriors. OLA won the match 25-12, 25-17 and 25-18. Rachel Cuevas paced the team with 12 points followed by Amanda Meyers with 11 points. Sarah Loiacano led OLA with 26 assists while Lindsay Benvenuti manned the net with 6 kills.

In junior varsity action, OLA (4-0) defeated Oak Grove 25-12 and 25-15. Ansley Blalock led the team with 9 assists while Jaimie Reisch led all scorers with 16 points. Lauren Poncet was tops at the net with 5 kills.

OLA hosted the Gulf Coast Kickoff Classic at the Father Peter Mockler Gymnasium on Friday and Saturday. A full tournament report will be available for Thursday's edition.

Jackson Hewitt® Income Tax Course Starts Soon

Enroll and learn how to prepare income tax returns!

"I signed up for the Jackson Hewitt Income Tax Course thinking maybe I could do my own taxes and save myself some money. I was so impressed with the course material and the tax knowledge of the instructors I went on to become a tax preparer working for Jackson Hewitt Tax Service!" Said Julius Wright.

Julius is one of thousands of students who enroll in the Jackson Hewitt Tax Service Income Tax Course, or ITC, a six-week program offered each fall in Jackson Hewitt Tax Service offices nationwide. This instructor led course is ideal for students who enjoy learning in a classroom environment. While the course provides students with the basics of individual tax preparation, it's the review of tax industry insights, "hidden" deductions and under-utilized tax advantages that make the course truly valuable.

"The Jackson Hewitt Income Tax Course gives you a better advantage when you file your taxes because you learn about all the credits and deductions available to you," said Vanetta Wilson.

Ms. Wilson signed up for the Jackson Hewitt ITC when she was 17 years old, hoping to learn how to prepare her own taxes as she entered the work force for the first time. She did so well in the program that she decided to apply for a job as a Jackson Hewitt tax preparer.

The ITC is a 6-week program that meets for two three-hour sessions. Trained tax professionals lead each class and apply adult learning theories to teach participants how to complete the forms and schedules necessary to file an income tax return.

Tami Dowdle was very impressed with Jackson Hewitt's instructors whom she credits with being completely up to date on all the latest tax laws. According to Tami, the Jackson Hewitt Income Tax Course provides participants with an "understanding of taxes that works whether you're a professional or a homemaker."

The Jackson Hewitt Income Tax Course has helped college students, military spouses, stay-at-home parents, retirees and many others acquire the tax knowledge necessary to prepare tax returns for themselves, their family and friends. Many even start a new career as Jackson Hewitt tax preparer.

Volunteers can register online for Mississippi Coastal Cleanup

The official Mississippi Coastal Cleanup Web site, located at www.masgc.org/cleanup, has added several new features including online registration for volunteers. The site also includes results on types and sources of debris from the 2003 coastal cleanup, safety tips, news, Mississippi's Top Ten marine debris items, information on animal entanglements, sample data cards, cleanup site maps and much more.

Volunteers in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties are needed for the 17th annual Mississippi Coastal Cleanup to be held from 8 a.m. - 11 a.m., Saturday, September 17, in conjunction with the International Coastal Cleanup—the planet's largest volunteer cleanup effort on behalf of the marine environment. Governor Haley Barbour recently signed a proclamation in support of the annual event.

The Mississippi Coastal Cleanup is a Take Pride in America event. Part of the President's USA Freedom Corps call to service, the Take Pride in America program is a national partnership established by the U.S. Department of the Interior and is an excellent opportunity for citizens and communities to demonstrate local pride, initiative and stewardship.

Registration deadline for the Mississippi Coastal Cleanup is September 2. Register on-line at www.masgc.org/cleanup or you can obtain a registration form and sign up to volunteer by calling 467-9048 in Hancock County; 374-5022 ext. 5063 or 5062 in Harrison County; 217-2037 in Jackson County; 217-2035 or 875-4424 in Ocean Springs; 875-9057 ext. 106 for the Barrier Islands (requires boat); and 475-7047 for the Grand Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve (advance sign up required to reserve canoe.)

On cleanup day, zone captains will be stationed at each site in bright yellow T-shirts to direct volunteers and give them trash bags, data cards and pencils provided by The Ocean Conservancy, bottled water compliments of the Mississippi Soft Drink Association, and a free drawstring backpack provided by Chevron Pascagoula Refinery (while supplies last). "Stash Your Trash" wristbands, safety gloves and additional cleanup supplies are courtesy of Home Depot in Biloxi. Following the cleanup, volunteers must present their meal ticket for a free lunch of hamburgers, chicken sandwiches, potato chips and Coca-Cola products at Outback Steakhouse in Gulfport between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. only on the day of the event.

In 2004, the International Coastal Cleanup involved more than 305,000 volunteers from more than 90 countries who collected 7.7 million pounds of marine debris. For more information call the statewide toll-free Mississippi Coastal Cleanup Info Line at 1-866-5 CLEAN 5 or visit the official Mississippi Coastal Cleanup Web site at www.masgc.org/cleanup. Volunteers under age 21 must have their parents sign the registration form and fax or mail it back to participate.

Volunteers will pick up marine debris at 60 designated coastal cleanup sites (zones) in all three counties and the barrier islands. Designated cleanup areas are as follows:

Hancock County – Ansley/Heron Bay; Bay/Waveland Beaches, Garden Isle Community, Coleman Avenue (Waveland), Lazy River Road, Shoreline Park North East, Shoreline Park South East, Harbor Drive-Bayou Phillips, Kiln, Diamondhead, Riverview Civic Association, Clermont/Lakeshore, and Why 90/603 Nicholson Ave. to Waveland Ave.

Harrison County – Pass Christian Harbor, Long Beach Harbor, Gulfport Harbor, Gulfport Lake, Keegan Bayou (Back Bay), North Bay (Back Bay), James Hill Park, Lower Turkey Creek, D'Iberville Boat Launch, Fountain Pier, Deer Island, Point Cadet, U.S. 90 beach areas at Courthouse Road, the Coast Coliseum, Biloxi Lighthouse, KAFB Marina and Forrest Avenue Pier.

Jackson County – Fort Bayou Boat Launch and Waterway (canoeers and kayakers needed), Ocean Springs Fishing Bridge, Front Beach, East Beach, Davis Bayou (GINS), Gulf Park Estates Public Pier, Belle Fontaine Beach, Graveline Bayou Boat Launch, Gautier City Park, Pine Island (West Pascagoula River), I-10 boat launch, The Riverfront (Moss Point), The River Park (Pascagoula), Old Spanish Fort, Pascagoula Beach, Graveline Road/Shepard State Park, I.G. Pollock Ferry Landing and Bluff Creek.

Barrier Islands (requires boat) – west end and southern tip of Cat Island, Horn, Sand, Petit Bois, East and West Ship islands. (In the event of a small craft advisory, barrier islands volunteers should report to the Gulfport Harbor site.)

Grand Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve – Bayou Heron. Volunteers may bring their kayak or canoe. A limited number of canoes are available for use. Volunteers must call and sign up in advance for a canoe.

Following the cleanup, volunteers in Hancock County are invited for hot dogs and refreshments starting at 11 a.m. at the foot of Washington Street and the beach in Bay St. Louis by the American Legion Pier, courtesy of the Office of Congressman Gene Taylor and Da Beach House. There will also be a cookout for volunteers at 11 a.m. at Clermont Harbor Pier by Bay St. Louis Rotary Club members. In Jackson County, there will be a picnic for volunteers at Shepard State Park in Gautier at 11 a.m. courtesy of Robb's Barbeque on The Side.

Schools -- Hancock board

Curriculum Test administered during May 2005 to all second-through-eighth grade students in public schools throughout the state.

Hancock schools' results show that 93 percent of both second and third grade students scored Proficient (on grade level) or Advanced (above grade level) in reading, while 96 percent of fourth graders and 93 percent of the district's fifth graders scored Proficient or Advanced in reading. Hancock district children also scored high in math, with 95 percent of the district's second graders and 96 percent of the third grade students scoring proficient or advanced in math. Sixty percent of Hancock School District second graders scored Advanced in language, while 53 percent of the fourth grade students and 51 percent of the third grade students scored Advanced in math.

Hancock Middle School students also scored extremely well on the state wide tests. In sixth grade, 90 percent of students scored Proficient or Advanced in reading, 15 percent higher than the numbers for the state of Mississippi. Middle school students scored 13 percent higher than the state in reading, 17 percent higher than the state in language, and 18 percent higher than the state in math. Eighth grade students were 17 percent higher than the state in reading, 14 percent higher than the state in language and 20 percent higher than the state in math.

On the Mississippi Subject Area Tests administered in Spring 2005, Hancock High School students also earned high scores. On these tests that are required for graduation, high school students had a 99 percent passing rate on the Algebra I exam, a 95 percent passing rate on the Biology exam, and a 97 percent passing rate on the U.S. History exam. On the essay portion of the exam, students scored 90 percent and 94 percent passing respectively on the Narrative and Informative Essays.

"These outstanding test scores indicate that great things are happening in Hancock County School District," Kopf said in a statement issued last week, "thanks to dedicated, hard-working students, parents, teachers, staff, and community members." He repeated his congratulatory remarks at Thursday's meeting.

Unlike Kopf, board President Morgan Ladner said Thursday, "I highlight the weaknesses in our test scores ... but even there, we performed better than most of the other school districts on the Coast."

"The way we look at it," Kopf said, "We've got over 4,400 children (in our schools) and each one of them, we want to be successful."

"I think a district-wide Level 5 status (the highest level of performance on the tests) is an achievable goal" for next year, Ladner said.

The district's current level rankings will be released on Sept. 1. To review district and state test scores, visit the Mississippi Department of Education's testing website: orsap.mde.k12.ms.us:8080/MAARS.

In other action Thursday: Kopf and board member Peggy Ladner again clashed over several of the superintendent's recommendations, most notably personnel issues, such as Kopf's recommendations for supplemental pay assignments.

"We don't really need to be approving a list of positions when two positions have been deliberately omitted," Peggy Ladner said.

The debate has raged since June over head basketball coach Michael Ladner and head baseball coach Andy Perniciaro.

Kopf's recommendation failed again Thursday with a tie vote: Christopher "Packer" Ladner and Rose Ackef for it; and Morgan Ladner and Peggy Ladner against it.

"You do realize this affects our employees who are receiving supplemental pay," Kopf said.

"We can pay them retroactively," Peggy Ladner said.

"I would appreciate the board re-thinking this," Kopf said.

"It's done," Peggy Ladner countered.

Morgan and Peggy Ladner also disputed Kopf's recommendation to create a new position for a case manager/gifted education teacher and an emergency certification for a gifted education teacher.

Morgan Ladner chided Kopf for bringing the item up again after the board had rescinded the case manager position in July. The position doesn't exist, he said, so Kopf shouldn't keep trying to fill it.

"It shouldn't have come to this," he said. "It should've been taken care of already."

"I'm advising the board that you're incorrect," Kopf said.

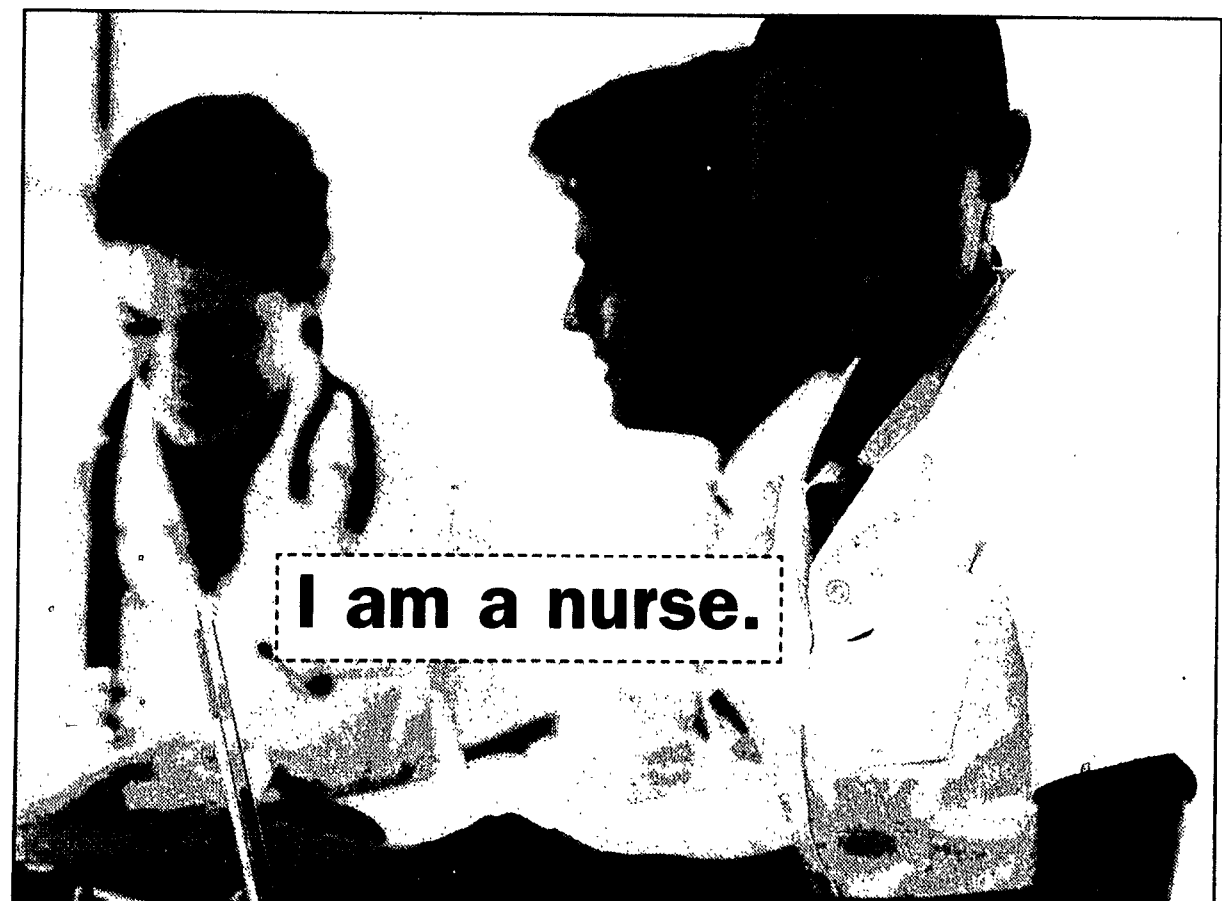

"That's your opinion," Peggy Ladner said. "You're entitled to it."

Morgan Ladner asked Kopf to separate the two items for the gifted and case manager/gifted positions. Kopf said he preferred to keep them together.

At several points during Thursday's meeting, Kopf complained to the board president that Peggy Ladner kept speaking out of turn.

"It's difficult to take notes over here when people are speaking out of order," Kopf said. Later, he asked if there had been a change and Peggy Ladner had taken over the board president's position. "Mr. Kopf," Peggy Ladner said, "let Morgan run the meeting."

USM to offer casino, resort management degree this fall

The University of Southern Mississippi is proceeding with plans to teach casino and resort management classes this fall on its Long Beach campus.

Following the state's decision to forego an appeal of a judge's earlier ruling in favor of the courses, Southern Miss will offer a degree in business administration with an emphasis in casino and resort management on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Southern Miss is the first state-supported university to offer business courses specific to the state's large gaming and tourism industry.

The university first submitted the proposal for the degree program in February 2004 after the Institutions of Higher Learning's request in late 2003 that Mississippi universities explore the feasibility of offering these kinds of programs. The state college board approved the new Bachelor of Science program during its April 2004 meeting in Jackson. Southern Miss offers this new degree through the Department of Tourism Management in the College of Business.

Students may earn the degree with one of three emphasis areas. Casino and resort management is available on the university's Long Beach campus, while hotel management and restaurant management are taught in Hattiesburg. Students in the degree program must complete approximately 40 credit hours of core business requirements and another 18 credit hours in their chosen emphasis area.

The program will help those currently in the casino industry who might lack the educational credentials to advance to executive level positions, said Dr. Cheri

Becker, chair of the Department of Tourism Management. The program is designed to provide students with a broad-based educational core that focuses on the development of communication and critical thinking skills. These core skills are followed by the acquisition of a strong business foundation, a prerequisite to managing any large business. The third focus is on how these business skills are integrated and applied within different segments of the tourism industry.

Recreation and tourism in Mississippi generated $5.7 billion in 2003, and the industry employs more than 90,000 Mississippians. Tourism is the state's largest service sector employer, according to a 2004 report by the Tourism Division of the Mississippi Development Authority.

"The tourism industry is a major source of jobs in Mississippi," said Southern

The Bay High Tigers football team is anxious to start the season and get a few games behind them so that the young players starting in several key positions can gain experience and get use to playing alongside a small group of experienced players.

That small group of experienced players is led by a linebacking corps that will be the heart and soul of the Tigers. A great deal is riding on the backs of seniors Trevor Adam, Cory Thornton and Kyle Moran to help bring the younger players up to speed and stop opponents' offenses.

"The Tigers will run a 3-5 defense which includes a total of 5 linebackers. Joining Adam, Thornton and Moran are Koby Adam and Jeremy Bell.

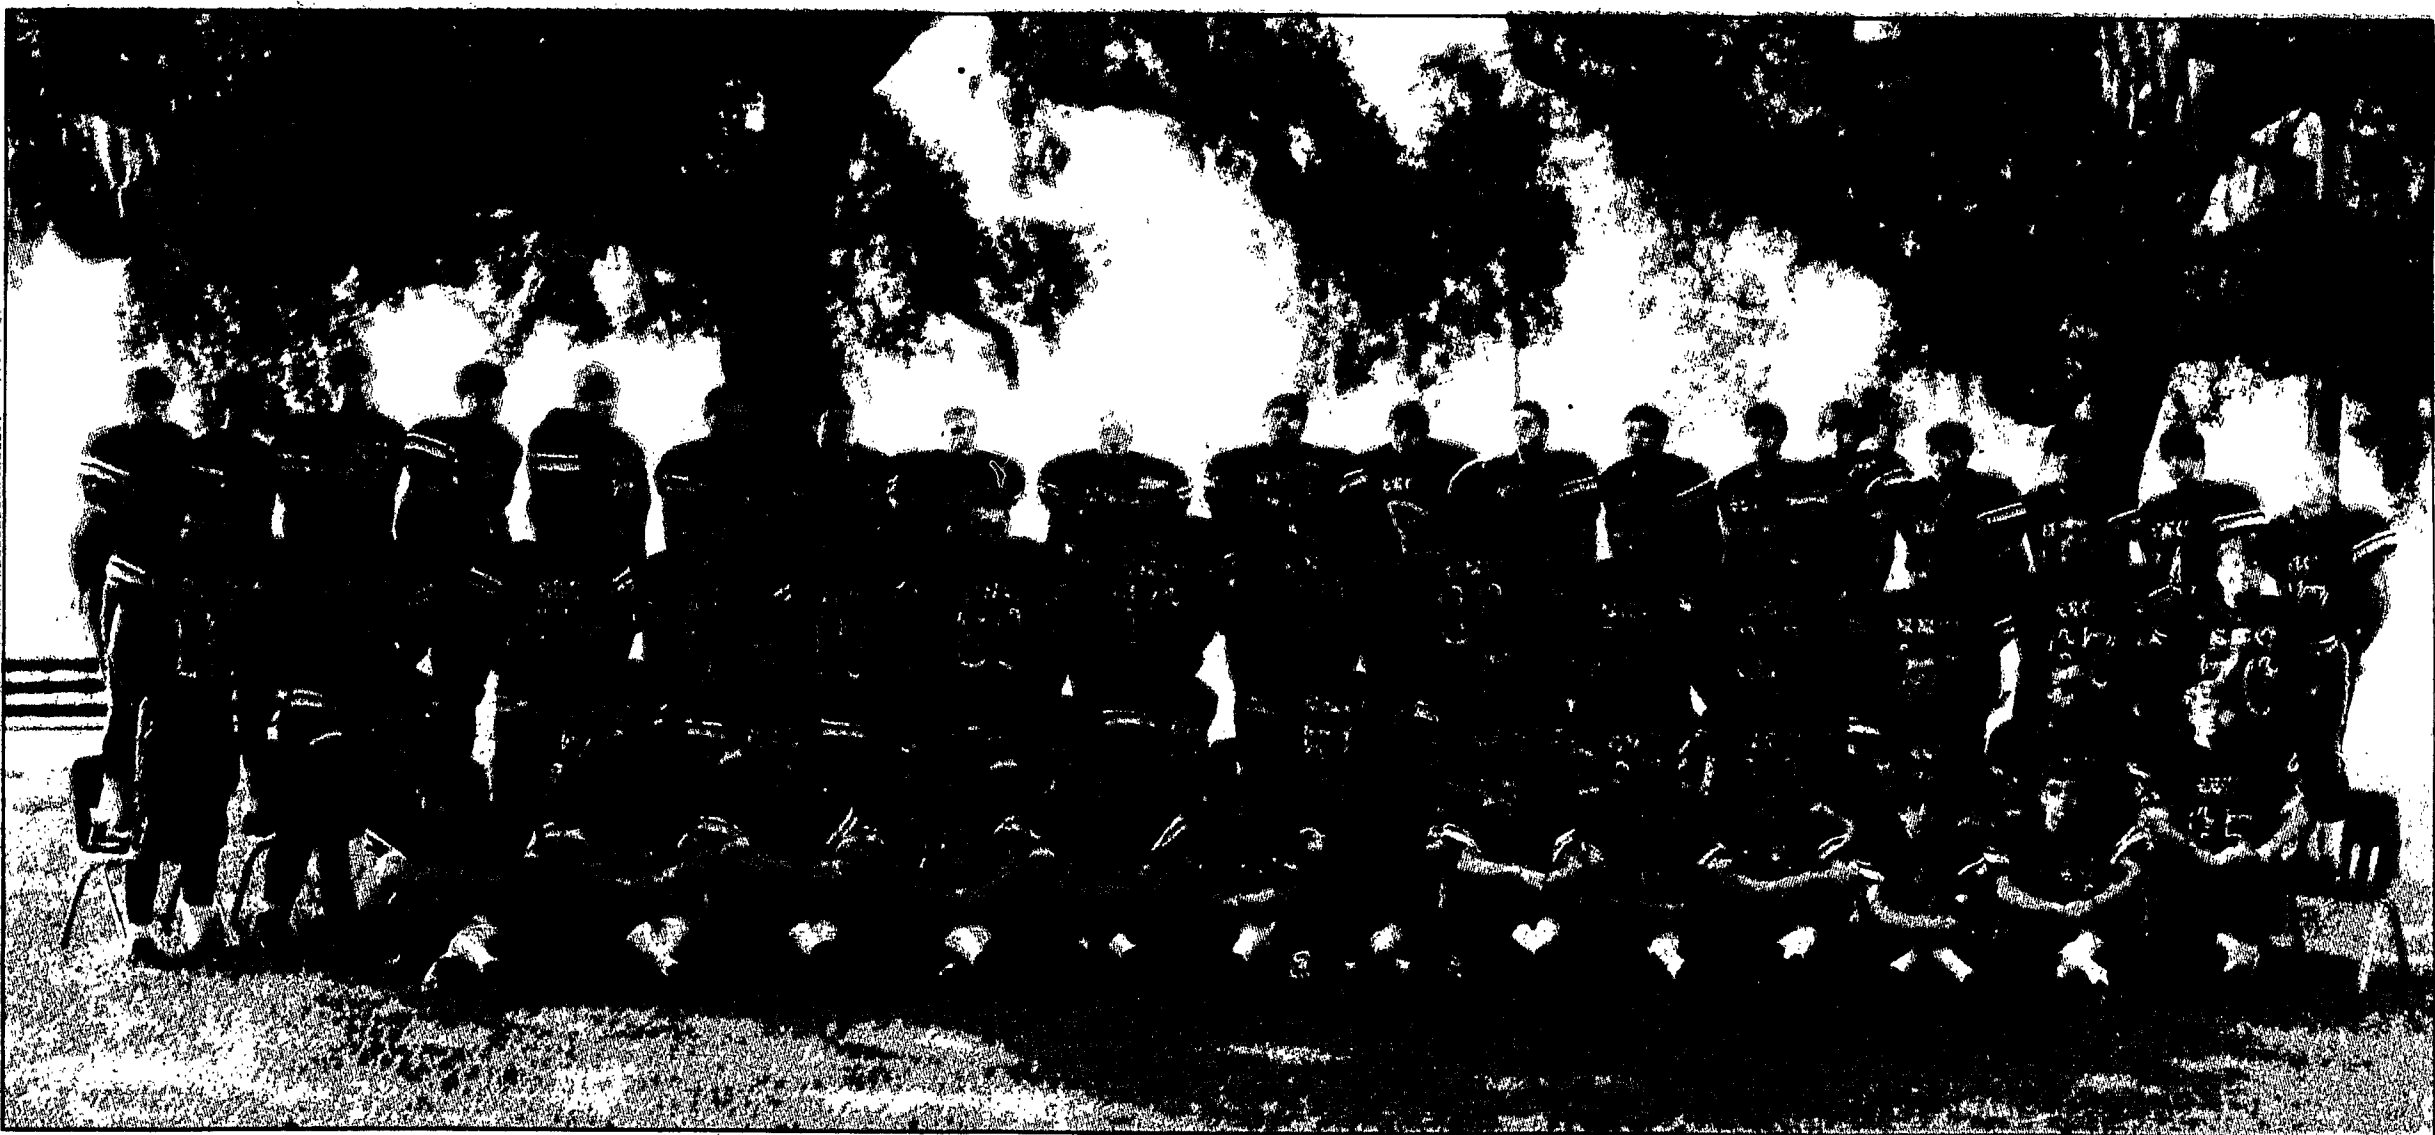

"The 3-5 allows you to be creative as far as blitzing and stunning goes," explained second year head coach Brennan Compretta. "It makes it easier to adjust to different offensive formations."

The defensive secondary will be anchored by safety Robert Labat who will be complimented by two young athletic cornerbacks in freshman Theo Hawkins and sophomore Shaquille Lewis.

"They're young, but they are very athletic," said Compretta. "Their athleticism should make up for their lack of experience."

On offense, the Tigers anticipate a ball control style of offense, getting the ball in the hands of sophomore Tony Connetti and jun-

SSC looks to build on success of 2004

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
Staff Writer

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws are set to begin their 90th season of football following an enormously successful 2004 campaign.

The 2004 season was an incomparable one on the gridiron in terms of accomplishments - a division title, individual and team high marks, four Division I signees plus many more. The Rocks finished 2004 with a 9-2 overall record, including an unblemished 6-0 mark in division play, before advancing to the second round of the Class 4A state playoffs.

The win total was the highest since the late 1960s as the Rocks earned their first-ever division title under the current format. During the season, SSC set 23 new team marks on offense and defense, as well as, several individual marks.

What does all this success mean for the Rocks? It means one thing - they are hungry for more!

SSC head coach Casey Wittmann stated, "We are excited about the upcoming season. The team is eager to continue building on the foundation that we have laid down. Over the summer, we feel like we have worked very hard as a team. The players have continued to mature in the system. We feel like a strong football team. The strength of our team this year

The 2005 Hancock High School Hawks Football Team

Hawks looking for improvement in 2005

BY DWAYNE BREMER
Contributing Writer

Football fans in Hancock County should be treated to some good football this fall. While the 2005 Hancock Hawks are still in a rebuilding mode, fans can expect an exciting young team that will battle every Friday night. The Hawks are coming off of a 1-10 season in 2004, but one could not tell that by talking to the coaches and players.

"We are really excited, these kids have worked so hard, and I think people will see a tremendous improvement this year," said head Coach Walt Esslinger.

The Hawks are experienced of both sides of the ball, as they will have nine starters returning on offense, and seven starters on defense returning.

On offense the Hawks should be able to move the ball and score points. The Hawks will run a traditional Wing T offense that plays on the strength of the Hawks massive offensive line, which will be anchored by senior Colin Miller. Miller is an imposing force at 6'03" and 337 lb., and he is considered by many as one of the best offensive linemen in the state. "We just want to get off the ball well and work hard as a unit. We need to take the team in our hands and keep the chains moving," Miller said.

Not to be outdone, the rest of the Hawks offensive line is outstanding. Senior Donovan Saucier 6'04" 300 lb. is a three-year starter and Senior Russell Tanguis 5'09" 235 lb., is a three-year starter as well. Junior Kevin Lafontaine 6'02, 260 lb., had an excellent year in 2004, and Junior Adam Delaune saw plenty of playing time in 2004. Sophomore Brandon Jorden, who is a promising young player, and Junior Josh Johnson will also see plenty of playing time on the line as well. "Our line has to put the team on its back. We are going to rely on our three seniors up front to carry us," said line coach Mike Gaudin.

With a strong offensive line, the Hawks will have a talented stable of running backs to carry the load. Senior Mark Fairley and Junior Andrew Smith will be the starting running backs. Fairley had a good year in 2004, as he racked up over 600 yards and score five touchdowns. Fairley poses break away speed and quick moves making him the Hawks big play threat. Smith, on the other hand is a load. Smith runs the ball right at the defense, and uses his 220 lb. to his advantage. His running style is similar to that of former Bay High Tiger Brian Laneaux. In 2004, Smith was a solid runner, gaining over 400 yards. In the wing-back spot the Hawks will count on Ronnie Thomas. Thomas, was a starter last year, and scored 3 touchdowns.

The Hawks passing game will not be as big a part as it has been in years past, but that does not mean that the Hawks will not be able to throw. Quarterback Braxton Necaise is a three-year starter. Necaise possesses a hard nose approach to the position. Necaise has a decent arm, and he is an excellent scrambler and a solid team leader.

Tight end Chase Mciver is one of the Hawks young stars. The 6'02" 200 lb., sophomore is a talented blocker and receiver. Sophomore Jessie Stennett will also see action at tight end. At wide receiver, Senior Drew Malley was impressive in the Hawks spring game, and Senior Drew Esslinger has shown steady improvement. Larry Beech, Aaron Baradell, and Tim Sheaffer will also see time at receiver.

"We need to be able to control the ball, and cut down on mistakes and turnovers. Hopefully the kids will keep showing improvements," coach Esslinger stated.

The Hawks defense will have plenty of experience, but they are still a very young group. The defensive line will have Kevin Lafontaine, Adam Dlaune, Rodney Goodsell, Jessie Stennett, Josh Johnson, Joseph Ncaise, and Brandon Jorden. "We have a lot of guys playing both ways, hopefully we can get good play from some of our young guys," said defensive coach Andy Pernicario.

The Hawks linebackers should be a solid unit, as Chase Mciver and Brently Ncaise man the middle of the field. Both Mciver and Ncaise are sophomores and they are highly regarded by the coaching staff. "Our linebackers are fast, strong and mean," said assistant coach Gary Sims. Colten Ball, Mark Hudson and Cedrick Bolden will also play at linebacker.

The defensive backfield has speed and experience. Sophomore Chris Jochum started nine game last year, as well as Junior Trey McLeod, and senior Larry Beech. Drew Malley, Ronnie Thomas and Braxton Ncaise will double in the backfield. "The kids have come a mile since the spring game. We have had one of the best off season workouts ever," Pernicario said.

The Hawks will begin their season on August 26, at home against Bay High.

The Hawks schedule is also a source of excitement for fans this year as the Hawks will no longer be traveling to the Pine Belt and Jackson. The Hawks are now in Region 4-5A, and will play opponents from the Gulf Coast. The Hawks open with traditional rivals Bay High, St. Stanislaus, Pass Christian, and Pearl River Central. The Hawks district schedule sees the Hawks face Gulfport, Biloxi, Pascagoula, Moss Point, ior Tal Raboteau as often as possible. But according to Compretta, they will feel comfortable throwing the ball on occasion as well.

"We won't be as explosive as last year," he explained. "But we're still going to throw the football. We're going to try to be balanced. We'll run a multiple offense and the I-formation."

The Tigers key targets when they air it out will be Labat, seniors, Michael Thompson and Jason Simms. Trevor Adam will also be used at tight end.

The offensive line returns three starters from last season. Teddy Morris, Grannison Sellier and Reuben Hawkins. Henry Monti and Ryan Proulx have stepped up to anchor the offensive line.

Compretta added that it's hard to gauge how well the Tigers will do in terms of wins and losses, particularly since the district has changed with the addition of Picayune, Long Beach and Poplarville. However, he added that his players have been diligent in the weight room during the off-season and that his players came to practice in overall good shape.

"This year's team is less experienced, but I believe as a whole they are a stronger team," Compretta added. "They'll be more physical."

"We're going to take some lumps early," Compretta explained. "We're going to have to play some young guys. Our sophomore group has some good players. We'll have some growing pains along the way. Hopefully, we will work through that." The Tigers open the season next Friday night at cross-county rival Hancock. The following Friday they host former district opponent D'Iberville.

They travel to Vancleave the following Friday before beginning a five-game district schedule. The district schedule begins with a home game against Long Beach, followed by a trip across town against rival St. Stanislaus.

Poplarville travels to McCullough Stadium the following week, followed by two road games at Pass Christian and Picayune. Tylertown comes to Bay St. Louis for a non-district clash, and Pearl River Central close out the season in Bay St. Louis to conclude the season and district play.

The 2005 Pass High School Pirates Football Team

Pass High Pirates looking to score wins, overcome adversity

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
Contributing Writer

The Pass High Pirates football team has worked hard in the offseason to overcome last year's winless 0-10 season.

"This group has dedicated itself to this year," said second year head coach Kelly Causey. "They've got the taste of 0-10 and they didn't like the taste. They have been dedicated throughout the summer. There is a sense of urgency to work."

"The attitude around here has been, 'Let's not sit around and do nothing,'" Causey explained. "We are growing as a team. Our work ethic has been a big turnaround from last year. When you put in a different offense and defense it takes a year or two for the kids to grasp the concept and get a hold to."

The Pirates leader on the field on both sides of the ball will be senior Jaren Bowser. According to Causey, he has really stepped up.

"Jaren is more of a leader by example," explained Causey. "He has the utmost respect of his teammates. He has been here everyday in the weight room throughout the summer. The ball will go through his hands on just about every play."

Chad Moore will be more comfortable running the option-oriented offense in his second year starting at the quarterback spot.

"Chad is doing an excellent job," said Causey of Moore's execution in practice. "He had a great summer in the weight room. When you run the option, you have to execute it well to be successful. It takes some time to get your reads and your footwork down because you are making split decisions, reacting to the defense. Chad's execution of the offense has been very good."

When Chad throws the ball he will be looking for receivers Aaron Saucier, Brandon Riley and Jamarius Whitcomb.

The offensive line will be led by guard Joseph Prima and tackle Grey Provost. "They really have shown a lot of leadership on the offensive line," said Causey. "The offensive line is much improved from last year."

Bowser will also be the Pirates leader on defense at the inside linebacker spot. "He is our bell cow," added Causey. "He will make sure that everybody's lined up. He is the quarterback of our defense."

Riley is Causey's star in the defensive secondary. According to Causey, Riley is an aggressive free safety who is a good tackler. "He is a head hunter type of defender."

The defensive line has two returning starters in seniors Dahlyn Saucier and A.J. Swanier.

Jonathon Willis returns for his third year as the Pirates kicker and punter. He has kicked 53- and 54-yard field goals in practice.

"We've had some good practices," said Coach Causey as he anticipated the upcoming season. "We've all struggled getting through the heat. We have high expectations. These guys have accepted the challenge to not go 0-10."

The Pirates have three non-district contests before they travel to Poplarville to open district play on September 16. They play at Florence next Friday night and travel to Kiln to play Hancock the following Friday before their home opener against Coach Causey's former team St. Martin. The Pirates host Perry Central for a non-district game on September 23rd, then begin the five-game district schedule, starting with Pitman on the road followed by a home game against Bay High. The Pirates travel to St. Stanislaus the following week. The Pirates entertain Pearl River Central for homecoming on October 21st. Rival Long Beach closes out the season in Pass Christian.

NJCAA, MACJC champion Wildcats gear up for 'repeats'

Hatten says 2005 group 'most athletic' in his PRCC tenure

Pearl River Community College football soared to unprecedented heights in 2004 winning both state and national championships, but can the Wildcats pull off a repeat performance this year?

Fifth-year head coach Tim Hatten says his 2005 group has the talented personnel to do just that, but he refuses to make any brash predictions even though his Wildcats will enter the season ranked No. 1 nationally by the NJCAA when they open Thursday, Sept. 1, against Itawamba in Fulton. He says this season's squad is the most athletic he has had in his previous four years in Poplarville, but youth and inexperience at key positions is all over the place.

"Athletic talent is no problem whatsoever, but we've got to have a lot of first-year guys to step up early for us to have a shot at repeating what we did a year ago," Hatten said. "It's not an absolute, but to even have a shot at an national title you can't lose a single game and in our league, anybody can beat anybody on a given date. Preparation is the key...you've got to take it one game at a time."

All-American quarterback Jimmy Oliver, a red-shirt sophomore from East Marion, returns for his final campaign in the maroon and gold and is one of four players from the MACJC to be named to this year's NJCAA first-team preseason All-American squad.

Oliver literally rewrote the Wildcat record book last season and was instrumental in PRCC winning their second-straight state championship and their second-ever NJCAA national championship. Pearl River won its other title in 1961 under legendary head coach Dobie Holden.

Oliver earned first-team All-American honors last season when he passed for league-best and national second-best 3,487 yards (290.6 yards a game) in 2004's undefeated 12-0 season, while his 3,658 yards of individual total offense (304.8 yards a game) topped all comers in the NJCAA. In addition, he was a first-team All-Region 23 honoree and was named the nation's and the region's "Offensive Player of the Year" for his efforts.

"What more can you say about Jimmy," Hatten said. "His numbers and all the recognition he received last year speaks for itself. And we expect him to pick up where he left off. He should be even better this year."

Hatten says the Wildcats' talent level is incredible.

"We kind of look at it this way," he explained. "Last year, I'd say 40 of our 55 guys on our roster were truly quality players. This year we're boasting top-notch quality people from one through 55 and that's a solid indication of our staff's recruiting efforts. Nobody works any harder than us. We're a much more solid team from head to toe than we were a year ago."

As a team, Pearl River finished first in the nation last season in total passing offense with 5,202 yards (301.4 yards a game); while the team's total offensive total of 5,202 yards (433.5 yards a game) was sixth-best in the NJCAA.

But the Wildcats have suffered great personnel losses since. Gone is record-setting All-American wide receiver Larry Brackins who shattered practically every pass-catching record in school history and opted to bypass senior college Pearl River sophomore quarterback Steven Kulkowski tosses a pass in the defending state and national champ Wildcats' first preseason workout Tuesday afternoon on the Poplarville campus. Kulkowski, who prepped at St. Stanislaus, enters the preseason as sophomore All-American Jimmy Oliver's backup. He will also handle the Wildcats' punting duties in 2005. PRCC takes the NJCAA's No. 1 preseason ranking into its 2005 opener against non-division rival Itawamba Thursday, Sept. 1, in Fulton.

offers to enter the NFL draft and was picked by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round.

A towering 6-foot-4, 215 pounder, Brackins snagged 55 passes for 1,093 yards — both school records — and finished his Wildcat career with 100 catches for 1,865 yards and 18 touchdowns.

Freshman Demetrius Byrd (6-foot-2, 190 pounds) of Miami, Fla., will hopefully fill the void created by Brackins' departure.

"Demetrius is probably the fastest guy to ever play here and that's saying a lot," Hatten said. "He's got only one year of high school playing ball experience, but runs the 40 in the 4.3s and has tremendous ability."

Sophomores Brandon Fountain of Moss Point and Kyle Sellers of Oak Grove both return and eye starting berths after seeing limited action last season, while 2004 starter Jacob Garber, a sophomore also from Oak Grove, returns to the lineup after he suffered a season-ending knee injury in last year's season opener against Itawamba.

Incoming freshmen Nick Expose and Marcus Ware, both from Columbia High, and Ricky Smith of Oak Grove will see plenty of playing time; while Chris Wright of Oak Grove and Danny Bell of Jacksonville, Fla., will see double duty at receiver and in the defensive secondary.

Like Byrd, Smith played only one season of high school ball, but snagged a whopping 60 passes — second most in the state — for coach Nevil Barr's Warriors last year.

"And we've got five quality running backs with catching abilities that will give our passing attack an added dimension in Mike McClendon, Seth Hayden, J.J. Smith, Gabe Fairman, and George Leverette," Hatten said.

McClendon, a sophomore who led the state in rushing his senior year at Quitman High School in 2003, ran for a second-best 480 yards on 75 carries last season for the Wildcats, despite missing one game with a knee injury. He produced a team-high 71 yards in PRCC's 35-14 victory over Butler CC (Kan.) in the Dalton Defenders Bowl in Coffeyville, Kan., in the national title bout.

"We consider Mike the best or one of the best runners in the league this year," Hatten said. "He's a tremendous athlete with tremendous toughness and speed."

Fairman, from Petal, and Leverette, from West Marion, are also sophomores, while Leverette will play time at one of the linebacking positions. Hayden and Smith are both freshmen, who prepped at Pearl River Central and Forrest County AHS, respectively. Hatten says his offensive front is the best he's had so far, but will be chock full of first-year, inexperienced players.

Returning will be starters Ryan Sefton, a tackle from Harrison Central; Scotty Dunn, a guard from Picayune High; and Tanner Graves, a guard from Sumrall. Freshmen Kevin Parker of Picayune High is expected to start at center, while guard Clint Whitley of Oak Grove and tackle Ken Evans of Philadelphia High will fill the other starting gaps.

"Ryan is one of the best o-line guys in the state and the rest of the up front guys are impressive," Hatten said.

Freshmen Jeffrey Stewart of Picayune High and Julius Gray and Kevin Green, both from Prentiss High, are expected to see plenty of action in reserve roles.

In regards to talent, fifth-year Wildcat defensive coordinator William Jones echoes Hatten's sentiments.

"Talent is not an obstacle for us," said Jones, who spent his first year at PRCC under then-head coach Scott Maxfield who is now leading the Henderson State (Ark.) football program. "The main thing defensively is whether our new guys have the mental toughness to put people away. Can we knock off teams when we have them on the ropes? Do we have the mettle in the tough games? Will we have the effort and attention to detail and preparation like our defensive guys of the last two years?"

"That remains to be seen, but if our new guys can step up like I know they can in the early part of the season, Pearl River's going to be a team that's mighty hard to beat," he concluded.

Only two full-time starters return to the Wildcat defense which was sixth-best in the NJCAA a year ago. Tackle Frank Harry of Angie, La., and end Ben McGilton of Pearl River Central started all 12 games last season; while linebacker Chris Lowery of Petal saw some starting time.

"Frank and Ben are going to be our anchors," Jones said. "They're hard workers on the practice field and in the classroom and form a solid foundation for the rest of our guys."

McGilton boasted a 3.7 grade-point average as a freshman, while Harry's GPA was a solid 2.8.

The remaining down positions see a heated competition. Out-of-staters Dorian Capers of Buford, S.C.; Brian Colter of Baker, La.; and Rodney Milson of Fitzgerald, Ga., are gunning for starting spots; while returning players Kevin Oatis of Prentiss and Vince Strickland of Hattiesburg High are also in the mix.

Freshmen Steve Dauenhauer of Bay High, Anthony Payne of Prentiss High, Chase Richardson of Poplarville High, Richard Roper of Biloxi High (a Mississippi Valley transfer), and David Tate of Madison Central (a Nichols State transfer) will also see plenty of action. Back up quarterback Steven Kulikowski, sophomore from St. Stanislaus, will be the Wildcats' punter.

Stanislaus -- football preview will be our diversity. We are able to do many things. There is talent at each position which is not something that SSC has had in the past."

While the Rocks return plenty of talent and letter winners, there were some gaps left by graduation. Gone are the "four horse-men" who signed Division I scholarships in Lee Klein, Jordan Ellis, Michael Cure and Stefan Sofianos.

Klein, one of the most decorated defensive players in SSC history, has taken his trade to the Air Force Academy to play for the Falcons. He was named the MVP in the Mississippi/Alabama All-Star Classic in June following player of the year honors in Division 8-4A, the Sea Coast Echo and South Mississippi. His vacancy at linebacker leaves a gaping hole for the Rocks to fill.

Jordan Ellis is now wearing the green and white of Tulane University. Ellis, also a member of the Mississippi All-Star team that played the Alabama All-Stars, was a bruising fullback/linebacker who punished opponents.

Michael Cure will soon be suiting up for the Big Green of Dartmouth College and the Ivy League. Cure, an All-State performer, roamed the defensive backfield with a knack for making the big hit. He also left SSC as the all-time receiving leader in yards, catches and touchdown receptions.

Sofianos broke onto the scene in 2004 as a standout wide receiver who earned All-State status following the season. He set single-season marks in touchdown receptions and receiving yards before signing with the Air Force Academy with Klein.

Brennen Thomas, Brett Bentz and Floyd Dedeaux are a few more Rock-a-chaws that SSC will be looking to replace when the season kicks off on August 26th.

There is no doubt that the seniors of 2005 left their mark during the 2004 season. Their contributions to the gridiron will not be easy to replace; however, SSC has some returning letter winners and newcomers that are ready to make their contributions known.

On offense, the Rocks will maintain their balanced attack with multiple sets depending on what the defense shows.

The 2004 Rock-a-chaw offense was an explosive one to say the least. It is shaping up to be just that in 2005. When one talks about the Rock offense, you have to start at the quarterback position and Lance Cuevas. To be brutally honest, Cuevas was just plain magical in 2004. He is set to return under center in 2005 and lead the Rocks to new heights, offensively. In 2004, he threw for 2,437 yards and 28 touchdowns with 128 completions in 261 attempts. All four marks are single-season bests for SSC.

Behind Cuevas in the offensive backfield is halfback Josh Duplessis. In 2004 he rushed for 1,210 yards on 147 carries and scored nine touchdowns. He averaged 8.23 yards per carry which is a season best mark.

Before the quarterback can throw or the tailback can run, the offensive line has to clear the way. The Rocks return each of their five linemen from 2004 in J.C. Brignone, Caleb McQueen, Bryce Morreale, Buddy Schultz and Matt Matranga. Not very often does an entire line remain intact in consecutive years; however, the Rocks are able to enjoy that luxury in 2005. These trench-diggers did an admirable job in opening holes and protecting Cuevas in 2004. Their aim is to do much of the same in 2005.

At wide receiver, Josh Morgan returns for his senior campaign. He has grown to be a leader as a receiver for the Rocks and will also line up in the defensive backfield.

Switching gears and taking a look at the defensive side of the ball for SSC, there is a mixture of returning letter winners and new faces for the Rocks. SSC will have a 35-look but will show various defensive fronts and blitz packages.

J.C. Brignone returns to anchor a defensive line that was very active in 2004. Brignone is getting a lot of attention from the in-state schools such as Mississippi State and Ole Miss, as well as, Rice for his talents on the d-line. Caleb McQueen will help Brignone clog the middle of the line. He made 25 tackles in 2004 and is looking to add more in 2005.

Also returning on the defense is Brennan Gordon who has since switched from defensive end to linebacker. Gordon was a cat-quick defensive end who put the pressure on the opposing quarterback. Now, he is able to use that quickness at linebacker for the Rocks. Mike Deifik also returns at linebacker. He is the only returning linebacker on the SSC squad that had extensive playing time in 2004. Deifik recorded 60 tackles last season and is looking to add more to that number by the year's end.

In the defensive backfield, Zach Elkins returns to lead a secondary that recorded 17 interceptions last season. Elkins will also be used as a wide receiver on the offensive side of the ball.

Some new faces to look for as the Rocks take the field are S/SE Mike Rice, LB/FB David Grapusa, LB/FB Kelly Mbadugha, LB/WB Eric Lichenstein, DB/HB Ryan Ray, LB/SE Chad Boos, OL/DL Kyle Hughes, OL/DL Grant West, OL/DL Sean Bentz, LB/FB Dusty Hoffpaur and DL/TE Sylvester Twiggs.

The kicking game returns Bryce Morreale and Matt Kivlan as placekickers. Both handled PATs and kickoffs last season for the Rocks; however, SSC will be looking to send out a new punter to replace the departed Michael Cure. There are three players vying for the opportunity to handle those duties in Kivlan, Chad Boos and Zach Elkins.

The Rocks will be participating in a new division lineup that consists of Picayune, Poplarville, Long Beach and Pearl River Central among the mainstays of Bay High and Pass Christian. Their non-division schedule includes Gulfport, Coahoma County and Wilkinson County. The Rocks and the Hancock Hawks will also renew their rivalry in 2005.

Wittmann commented on the new division alignment, "The division will be very competitive this year. Any team has the ability to beat anyone else on any Friday night. Each team has to come prepared to play every Friday."

As far as the non-division schedule goes, the Rocks have added some very exciting opponents. There are two teams that not much is known but are extremely athletic in Wilkinson County and Coahoma County - both 3A schools. Gulfport and Hancock are 5A schools that are familiar to the Rocks.

One thing that has helped the Rock-a-chaws mature into a consistent team has been the consistency of their coaching staff. Casey Wittmann (SSC '84) is the head coach and has led his first three teams at SSC to the playoffs. On his staff is Mark Logan (Defensive Coordinator), Stu Rayburn (Offensive Coordinator), Stan Dellenger (Special Teams Coordinator), Stace McRaney (Offensive Line), Eric Hoffer (Jr High Head Coach / Offensive Coordinator), Sean Hicks (Jr High Defensive Coordinator), Chad Rhodes (Running Backs, 9th grade Head Coach, Head Strength Coach), Dave Boos (LLB and 9th grade Defensive Coordinator), Bruce Morreale (Jr High Line Coach) and Mike Proulx (Wide Receivers Coach).

The spring drills gave the team some looks at its newest chapter. The summer weight sessions and camps allowed the coaches to see some new talent. Now that two-a-days are complete and game plans are being implemented, it is time to start building. The season of 2004 was one that solidified the foundation that Wittmann and his staff were laying. Now, as 2005 begins, it is time for these Rocks to start making the second addition to the structure.

AREA DEVOTIONAL & DIRECTORY PAGES

How much is your safety worth?

What is that thing?" a startled airport security man asked, pointing to a small, silvery container which was hung up in a corner of a security bin.

"That is a metal container which holds the oil of the sick which is used to anoint the sick and the dying," I answered with a broad smile.

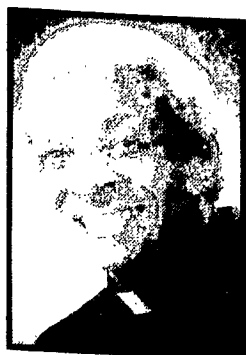

"Oh! You're a priest!" several people reacted with triumph and pleasant surprise at seeing what they had never seen before and learning what it was and how it is to be used.

Being metallic, the small container had to be placed in a plastic bin with the rest of my personal items which might set off the alarm buzzer. However, having cleared the hazards of anti-terrorist security measures, just when I was gathering and recovering all my effects, I had overlooked the small cylinder which had been pushed to the side.

Yes, in case you are curious, I do carry that small cylinder of oil of the sick with me in my jacket, just in case someone is seriously afflicted or - God forbid - is badly injured in a vehicular or other accident. Unfortunately, I have had to use it from time to time.

So it was back into my sandals which were in a separate bin with my jacket thrown on top of them. Finally, off and running again for the waiting airliner, I could not help but be amused by all the drama that had transpired within the space of five or six minutes. Yes, I have become quite resigned to and am entertained by the invasive procedures of security. Alas, within days the news peppered our ears with a daring, new attitude of Homeland Security agents determined to break the logjams of airport security and expedite the searching of passengers. Shoes would no longer have to be removed. Ice picks, razors, plus scissors and pocket knives with blades up to five inches long would be tolerated.

Reflections on Life

by Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

can do a lot more damage than humble box cutters.

And what about shoes? And sneakers? Do we now have to eye and carefully inspect everybody's shoes and sneakers in order to make sure that no shoe bomber a la Richard Reid would sneak aboard our airliner with loaded sneakers and murderous intent?

Most bizarre of all, Homeland Security agents want to give a pass to people carrying a bow and arrow! Pray tell, what on God's earth would anyone carrying a bow and arrow have in mind upon boarding a plane? Or do the sage agents mean only checked luggage? Shades of 911 and hijackers with box cutters which proved to be as deadly as swords! A very uncomfortable feeling swarmed all over me. "Isn't this contemplated policy tantamount to turning back the hands of time to pre-911 days?" I wondered. Surely, the things Homeland Security was thinking of letting through could kill pilots and stewards.

I am hoping against hope that our airport security people are not truly serious about their suggested reversion to days of laxer screening, and that they are merely floating trial balloons which they expect us to shoot down if they do not meet our standard of safety.

Frankly, you have my vote right now. If the Homeland Security agents are serious about allowing former contraband items to pass screeners without a challenge, fire the whole lot of them! Their warped thinking is not serving our security and welfare, but is only giving way to the equally warped demands of passengers bent on self-destruction.

After putting my primeval instinct of survival on the back burner once sharp and potentially deadly objects and instruments were outlawed, I have found myself quickly firing up the old resolve of resistance which dates back decades to the earliest years of hijacking, even when we were advised not to make any moves against apparent hijackers.

Yes, I might die in the process, but I have long resolved not to spare the life of any hijacker who turned his back on me for a moment. Now, at least, authorities have changed their tune, encouraging all passengers to take out hijackers wherever and whenever possible. This would have aborted all four flying bombs of 911.

However, pressing the question, are our Homeland Security agents earning their keep, are they truly serving us, or are they fecklessly giving in to the complaints and gripes of numerous air lines passengers who obviously place convenience above safety? Frankly, I take a very dim view of the silly swirl our well-paid agents are handing out to us.

Mind you, these nonsensical suggestions come right on the heels of devastating bombs in the transportation system of London, followed by failed bombs soon afterwards. The timing of the contemplated lighter screening could not have been more inane.

Further, screening exemptions for judges, U.S. cabinet members, congresspersons and other national VIPs are almost as suspect as the other exemptions, leaving more gaping holes in the Homeland Security system for the devious maneuvers of hijackers.

I cannot fathom what is going through the minds of people who are constantly upset over the somewhat strict rules of airport screening prior to flight time. All they seem to see is inconvenience, loss of time, and annoyance. Sure, there is inconvenience, but what I experience is peaceful assurance stemming from a concerted effort to discover weapons.

"You got to give a little, take a little," is more than the comforting thoughts in a fabled love song. It is a template of whatever we do in life; in this case, the balancing of our freedom and privacy with the tensions of assuring our safety aboard airliners. In order to have a reasonable measure of security, we must give up some freedom and privacy.

Having to remove my sandals, my jacket and the contents of my pockets have become not just a necessary inconvenience, but an actual spectacle that goes with the territory. Believe it or not, it is not annoying to me, but a bit of the spice of life. All I can say is, thank God for tough security laws, no-nonsense screeners and high-tech devices.

Scripture Says

By Ed Young

Put your faith in God when the visitors come

It is possible that someday, we could be visited by creatures from outer space. Some people believe that we already have experienced this phenomenon.

Let's assume that the day will come when we sit down and talk eye to eye, face to face. These visitors will be asked many questions. Questions like: Where are you from? What planet do you call your home? What kind of government do you have? How long did it take you to get to earth? What type of religion do you have?

Eventually, these questions will be asked: Who is your God? What is his name? Does he have a son? If so, what is his son's name? The Christian world would be in shock if the visitors answered like, "we have many gods" or "we have none." "We've never heard of Jesus or his Father, Yahweh."

The great deceiver, Satan, will be the main one behind the deception. The fallen angels who were cast out of Heaven are the so-called "visitors." The sole purpose of them coming to Earth is to discredit the Christian message and belief. Unfortunately, some will become so confused, they will fall by the wayside. Signs and wonders will be performed by these demons; and the heavens shaken. Then the Almighty will flood the earth with His Holy Angels and they will defeat Satan's demons.

Some of us may still be living when all of this happens. When it starts, put your hands in the hand of me. King of kings and you will be safe. He is our buckler and shield; the strong arm of the Lord the gates of hell will not prevail against the Church. (Matt. 16:18, Psalm 91)

Word of the Week

By Dennis Prutow

Real Possibilities For Change

When we start trying to make significant changes in our lives, we find out how stubborn old habits can be. They are very difficult to break.

We need help. Real help in breaking bad habits comes from God. First, you need to see those old habits as sinful.

They are not only distasteful to you, they are abhorrent to God. Second, you need to turn to God and ask forgiveness.

Third, you need to ask God for special power to turn away from those old habits.

Fourth, you must work on forming new habits to replace the old ones. In all of this, you must realize that Christ gave His life for Christians "that we should no longer be slaves to sin" (Romans 6:6). Christ breaks the rule and reign of sinful bad habits. Christ gives Christian people inner strength.

With this new inner strength, bad habits can be conquered and new good habits formed.

You can therefore follow the Bible when it says, "Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness and holiness" (Romans 6:19).

Are you really serious about forming new habits in the next weeks and months? Seek out Jesus Christ. He breaks the power of old habits. He led us into new ones.

The Sea Coast Echo

Hancock's Local Newspaper since 1892

Advertising is an investment in the success of your business. Every business has some kind of competition, either within the town, nearby city or from mail order firms. Your potential customers are being courted by your competitors. If you do not invite those customers to do business with you, they are likely to forget you and buy elsewhere. It is not uncommon for consumers to switch their trading from one store to another. Advertising helps to keep old customers and equally as important, make new ones.

Our community is constantly growing which means that potential customers are moving into the market area all the time. Advertising gives these newcomers a reason to visit your store.

Most businesses budget for their advertising expenses just as they do for other necessities such as rent, phones, etc. Smart business people realize that advertising is imperative to keep their business growing.

Another reason to advertise is that advertising is news! You profit by telling our readers what is new in your store. Through advertising, you can let a wide audience know the product lines you carry, the quality of your merchandise, the completeness of your service and the character of your store.

If you have something to sell, then you have something to advertise. When you have nothing to advertise, you are out of business. Advertising is designed to build your business and works best when it is repeated regularly. Consistent advertising pays off!

Now that you know some of the reasons to advertise, you're probably wondering how you can advertise most effectively. Surveys show that ads in local newspapers have more impact than in any other medium. The Sea Coast Echo goes into the majority of the homes in Hancock County. The Sea Coast Echo is full of interesting reading, it is a part of our community. People like to read about people and The Sea Coast Echo is full of pictures and stories about local people. The most important reason to advertise in The Sea Coast Echo is that our readers are your customers.

If you're looking for the best advertising value for your money, then you should contact the advertising department at The Sea Coast Echo. One of our advertising representatives will be happy to discuss the many advertising options offered by The Sea Coast Echo. For more information you may call 467-5474, Monday through Friday 8am to 5pm, or stop by our office at 124 Court Street, Bay St. Louis.

Since 1892, The Sea Coast Echo is proud to be a part of your community

Messina & Raye to perform at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis

THE SEA COAST ECHO
Her "Give A Damn's Busted," but her microphone isn't! Jo Dee Messina will perform with special guest Collin Raye when they perform at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis on Saturday, October 1 at 9 p.m. Tickets for this exciting one night-only concert event start at just $24.95 and are available through the Casino Magic Box Office, by calling 1-800-5-MAGIC5 or through any Ticketmaster outlet. Premium seating and hotel packages are also available.

Massachusetts native, Jo Dee Messina began her career as a recording artist with the release of her first album in 1996. Eight number one singles and numerous awards later, she shows no signs of slowing down. In fact, the first single from her latest album, Delicious Surprise, "My Give A Damn's Busted" is burning up the country charts.

Messina's double platinum albums have churned up a veritable storm of hits including: "Heads Carolina, Tails California" "You're Not In Kansas Anymore" "Bye Bye," "Lesson In Leavin'," "Stand Beside Me," and "Because You Love Me." Her song "Burn" also crossed over to become an AC hit and "Bring On The Rain," became an unforeseen balm for radio listeners in the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, both at country and AC stations.

Arkansas native Collin Raye spent much of his childhood on the stage performing professionally at age 7. When Raye was 13, he and his older brother, formed The Wray Brothers. They began performing in Texas roadhouses and soon became headliners in the gambling casinos of Reno, Nev. Then known as Bubba Wray, Raye became a walking encyclopedia of songs and a passionate showman. He later began using the name Collin Raye professionally.

Jo Dee Messina

He signed with Epic Records in 1990 and a year later, his solo career took off when "Love, Me" became the first of his chart topping hits. Raye now has four platinum albums, four No. 1 singles and 14 Top 5 hits on the Billboard country singles chart.

The singer also has recorded a holiday album, Collin Raye Christmas: The Gift, and a children's album, Counting Sheep.

Now divorced, the father of two is passionate about children's issues. Raye frequently shares his views through the songs he chooses to record, like "I Think About You." The song's music video, which co-starred his daughter Brittany, focused on domestic violence and won the Academy of Country Music's Video of the Year award for 1997.

"In the beginning, I wanted hits and all that," he reflects. "But what drives me now is what this music means to people. Songs have landed on me that made me realize there's more to this than I thought. It's about entertaining people one minute and healing them the next. It's kinda like a ministry," says Raye.

Nearly 200,000 calls poured into Al-Anon's 1-800 number after Collin included it in his video for "Little Rock." And millions have danced to such joyous performances as "On the Verge," "My Kind of Girl," "That's My Story" and "Every Second." Country Radio Broadcasters, an industry group, gave Raye its Humanitarian Award in 2001 to recognize his continuing charity efforts.

Don't miss Jo Dee Messina with special guest Collin Raye at Casino Magic Bay St. Louis on Saturday, Oct. 1.

Movie: Tammy and the Bachelor

Debbie Reynolds stars in the first of the "Tammy" movies. Based on a novel by Cid Ricketts Sumner, Reynolds plays Tammy Tyree, who lives on a swamp boat with her self-proclaimed preacher grandfather (Walter Brennan). One day, they find an unconscious man (Leslie Nielsen) and nurse him back to health. To return the favor, he takes Tammy to his family mansion when Grandpa is arrested. Fay Wray and Mildred Natwick co-star in the 1957 musical.

Friday

Movie: Jack & Sarah

Richard E. Grant stars in this 1995 comedy-drama as a grumpy London lawyer whose wife (Imogen Stubbs) dies giving birth to their daughter. He hires an American waitress (Samantha Mathis) as the baby's nanny. She has no experience, but she has access to plenty of advice — sometimes conflicting — from the baby's two grandmothers (Judi Dench, Eileen Atkins) and the family butler (Ian McKellen).

TV Trivia

Mario Van Peebles ("Ali") worked in the New York Office of Management and Budget under Mayor Ed Koch.

Christopher Kennedy Masterson ("Malcolm in the Middle") worked with brother Danny in "Beethoven's 2nd" but told no one they were related.

Michael Badalucco ("Pizza My Heart") is the son of a movie set carpenter. He worked as a prop master before landing acting roles.

Ernest Borgnine ("Airwolf") was married to Ethel Merman for 32 days, and in her autobiography, the chapter about him is a blank page.

Sunday Best Bets

1:30 p.m. on TNT
NASCAR Racing
A short week for NASCAR's Nextel Cup drivers begins in Brooklyn, Mich., for the running of the GFS Marketplace 400. Greg Biffle has made relatively short work of his rivals in the two most recent trips to Michigan International Speedway, winning last year's GFS after starting 24th, and outdueling Tony Stewart to take the checkered flag in June's Batman Begins 400, in which he started 25th. From here, the boys head to Tennessee for Saturday's Sharpie 500.

6 p.m. and FAM
Movie: Campus Confidential
A teenager (Christy Carlson Romano, "Even Stevens") is appalled by the cliques in her new suburban high school and starts a tabloid newspaper to expose embarrassing facts about the popular kids. The scheme backfires when she mistakenly publishes something about the guy she has a crush on (Teddy Dunn, "Veronica Mars"), and she must do some damage control. Kaley Sagal and Keri Lynn Pratt also star in this new family comedy.

6 p.m. and HALL
Movie: Mystery Woman: Game Time
What better mystery for a bookstore owner to solve than the murder of a writer? In this new movie, Samantha (Kellie Martin) scores a coup by getting a reclusive author to do a book signing at her shop. But don't buy your copy of his new book yet, kids; he's dead. She joins forces with Cassie and Philby (Nina Siemaszko, Clarence Williams III) to find out whodunit ... and why. Could it have anything to do with his ties to the video game business?

7 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX
The Simpsons
The arrival of a junk-food vending machine at Springfield Elementary is good news to Bart (voice of Nancy Cartwright) but bad news for his heart — not to mention his weight. When Marge's (voice of Julie Kavner) efforts to slim him down at home fail, she and Homer ship him off to a weight-loss camp and convert their home to a hostel for German tourists to pay for it. Albert Brooks provides the voice of the camp operator in "The Heartbroke Kid."

7 p.m. and TBS
Movie: My Cousin Vinny
A rookie lawyer (Joe Pesci) from New York descends upon a small Alabama town to help clear a relative and his buddy (Ralph Macchio, Mitchell Whitfield) of a murder rap. With plenty of circumstantial evidence against the pair, and Vinny's total lack of courtroom experience, things look bleak until a surprise expert witness takes the stand. Marisa Tomei portrays Vinny's girlfriend in this 1992 comedy.

8 p.m. on 6-NBC
Law & Order: Criminal Intent
Fans of the original "Law & Order" who are still mourning the death of Jerry Orbach (aka Detective Lennie Briscoe) will get a blast from this "Criminal Intent" episode. Chris Noth reprises his wildly popular "L&O" role as Briscoe's longtime partner, Detective Mike Logan, whose girlfriend may help Goren and Eames (Vincent D'Onofrio, Kathryn Erbe) unlock the mystery surrounding a prison guard's murder.

8 p.m. and DSC
Amazon Abyss
The Amazon region is one of the lushest on Earth, with an amazing array of plant and animal life. But what about the river itself? That's teeming with interesting critters, too. In this new two-hour special, underwater cameraman Mike deGruy and his team get up close and personal with the denizens of the Amazon's depths, including a 6-foot catfish for whom an actual cat would be a mere appetizer.

8 p.m. on HBO
Six Feet Under
In the finale of the darkly comic series, David (Michael C. Hall) confronts a demon. Brenda (Rachel Griffiths) delivers early and deals with bad attitude from Nate (Peter Krause). Claire (Lauren Ambrose) gets a call and heads into the future. Rico and Vanessa (Freddy Rodriguez, Justina Machado) celebrate their investment. Olivier (Peter Macdissi) shows another side of himself, winning Margaret's (Joanna Cassidy) admiration in "Everyone's Waiting."

In "Van, Go," Carrie (Leah Remini) offers to help Holly (Nicole Sullivan) decorate her van. There's one catch: Holly needs to give her a ride to the store for supplies. Holly is not happy to discover that Carrie was only using her to get access to the van for her own purchases. MLB Baseball

To keep pace in the wild-card race, the Chicago Cubs need a much better showing in the next three games against the Atlanta Braves than they put forth in their first meeting in early July. That four-game set in Atlanta was a mismatch, with Andruw Jones and the Braves outscoring the Cubbies — who were shut out twice — 24-5. In fairness to the Northsiders, though, they were missing their best player, triple-crown threat Derrek Lee, for two of the games.

a few weeks. Patricia Heaton also stars in "Boys' Therapy."

8 p.m. on 6-NBC
Las Vegas

Sylvester Stallone guest stars as Frank, a friend of Ed's (James Caan) who helps him go after some small-time mobsters trying to squeeze a restaurant owner in "To Protect and Serve Manicotti." Sam, Delinda and Nessa (Vanessa Marcil, Molly Sims, Marsha Thomason) jockey for the attention of "Fear Factor" host Joe Rogan (guest starring as himself), hoping to get on his show.

Law & Order

Fontana and Green (Dennis Farina, Jesse L. Martin) link an Afghan warlord (guest star Christopher Maher) to the massacre of some fellow drug dealers in "Enemy." Because he has been helping the U.S. military effort in Afghanistan, he claims diplomatic immunity from prosecution, but McCoy and Southerlyn (Sam Waterston, Elisabeth Rohm) vow to prosecute.

Thursday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

Movie: Evolution

Director Ivan Reitman targets horror-movie conventions for humor with this 2001 parody. David Duchovny spoofs his "X-Files" image by playing a college professor who teams with a scholar and a government scientist (Orlando Jones, Julianne Moore) to protect the world from a strange organism that has landed on Earth.

7 p.m. on 6-NBC

Joey

You have a secret that could hurt a friend if she knew, but not knowing could lead to a bigger hurt. What do you do? That's Joey's (Matt LeBlanc) problem when he sees Alex's (Andrea Anders) husband (guest star Matt Letscher) kissing someone else. Drea de Matteo and Paulo Costanzo also star in "Joey and the Spying."

8 p.m. on 4-CBS

CSI: Crime Scene Investigation

Rains that drench Las Vegas float a murder victim's remains into view in "Down the Drain." Grissom (William Petersen) and his team work that case, while the members of a sanitation crew in another location also discover human bones in a sewer. Gigi Rice ("The John Larroquette Show") and veteran comedian Jack Carter guest star.

8:59 p.m. on 6-NBC

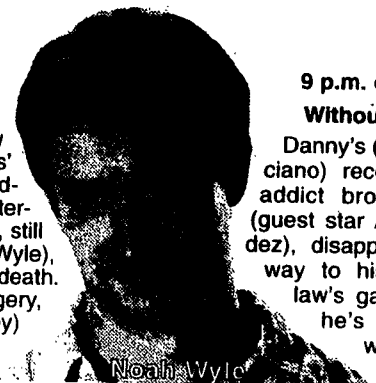

ER

Longtime fans of the show will remember Red Buttons' guest-star run in the mid-1990s as the husband of a terminally ill woman. He's back, still upset with Dr. Carter (Noah Wyle), whom he blames for her death. Now he needs heart surgery, which Abby (Maura Tierney) fears he won't survive, but she's overruled.

9 p.m. on 4-CBS

Without a Trace

Danny's (Enrique Murciano) recovering drug addict brother, Rafael (guest star Alex Fernandez), disappears on the way to his brother-in-law's garage, where he's allegedly working off the books.

NFL Preseason Football

Could this be the most important preseason of coach Joe Gibbs' career? That's a lot to ask about a Hall of Famer, but after the Redskins fell flat in a 6-10 comeback season for the coach in 2004, the answer is probably yes. Figuring out who will quarterback an offense that stunk a year ago is first and foremost on Gibbs' agenda, with the candidates being Patrick Ramsey, Mark Brunell and rookie Jason Campbell. Washington battles Pittsburgh tonight.

7 p.m. on 38-WB

What I Like About You

Holly (Amanda Bynes) throws a party for Vince (Nick Zano) and is thrown when he arrives with another girl (guest star Minka Kelly). His excuse: Holly can't commit. Val (Jennie Garth) dreams of marriage and stepmotherhood when she meets a good-looking single dad (guest star David Starzyk), but she soon realizes that she likes the son (guest star Skyler Gisondo) better than his father in "The Kid, the Cake & the Chemistry."

7 p.m. on 54-UPN

Movie: All About the Benjamins

Bounty hunter Bucum (Ice Cube) and his current quarry, small-time con man Reggie (Michael Epps), team up to pursue some murderous jewel thieves in this 2002 comedy. Bucum's motive is publicity; he's trying to start his own business. Reggie's is cash; the thieves have his wallet, which contains a winning lottery ticket. Tommy Flanagan, Carmen Chaplin and Roger Guenveur Smith also star.

8 p.m. on 26-ABC

Hope & Faith

Country music star Wynonna Judd guest stars in the one-hour episode "Wife Swap," inspired by the reality series. Judd plays a spoiled, wealthy New York wife and mother who trades families with the down-to-earth Hope (Faith Ford) and inherits not only a "new" husband and children but a wacky sister (Kelly Ripa).

8 p.m. on 38-WB

Reba

Country music icon Dolly Parton guest stars as Dolly Majors, the biggest real-estate agent in town. She's interested in hiring Reba (Reba McEntire), who would kill for this opportunity. She's less than happy, though, when Dolly shows up unannounced to interview her at home. Christopher Rich and JoAnna Garcia also star in "Reba's Rules of Real Estate."

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Crossing Jordan

A gunman opens fire in the morgue, killing a bystander, in "Murder in the Rue Morgue." Jordan (Jill Hennessy) checks the records and discovers the killer's first victim, but as Woody (Jerry O'Connell) probes further, he discovers a link to a slain child prostitute and a possible motive for what originally looked like a random act.

9 p.m. and USA

Monk

A rare glimpse into Monk's (Tony Shalhoub) past—before the death of his wife that made his obsessive-compulsive symptoms kick in big time—can be found in the season finale, "Mr. Monk and Little Monk." A woman on whom Monk had a crush when they were teens seeks his help in solving a murder. And it's flashback time, as we meet young Adrian (guest star Grant Rosenmeyer) and his dream girl and learn a little more about how he got that way.

In Focus

After scoring an out-of-the-park hit with "Legally Blonde," Reese Witherspoon proved her ability to "open" a movie in a big way was not a fluke with the 2002 comedy "Sweet Home Alabama," which airs Thursday, Aug. 25, on Fox. Witherspoon plays a fashion designer who wants to wed the son (Patrick Dempsey) of New York's mayor (Candice Bergen) ... but first, there's the matter of the estranged Southern-charmer husband (Josh Lucas) who hasn't officially divorced her yet.

The curtain comes down on "Six Feet Under" as Michael C. Hall and the other stars of the award-winning HBO funeral-home drama wrap up their five-season run Sunday, Aug. 21, by setting up their characters' futures. David (Hall) finally comes to terms with a troubling aspect of his past; Brenda (Rachel Griffiths) is backed into a corner emotionally; Claire (Lauren Ambrose) gets an appreciation of Ted (Chris Messina); and Ruth (Frances Conroy) yields to Bettina (guest star Kathy Bates).

Movie: The Mexican

Brad Pitt and Julia Roberts supply the star power in this 2001 action-comedy, though they don't have all that many scenes together. They play lovers who are separated when Pitt's mob-emissary character is ordered to get his hands on the valuable gun from which the film takes its name. His girlfriend is held hostage by a hitman (James Gandolfini) to ensure the job gets done.

7 p.m. on 4-CBS

NFL Preseason Football

With Peyton Manning and Marvin Harrison leading the way, the Indianapolis Colts are more than set on offense. Defensively, it's another story, but at least in the secondary, the Colts should be deeper than they ever have been under coach Tony Dungy. Veteran corners Nick Harper and Donald Strickland and rookies Marlin Jackson and Kelvin Hayden make up the core of the unit, and they should see plenty of snaps tonight against the Denver Broncos.

7 p.m. on 6-NBC

Crossing Jordan

This series merges with "Las Vegas" in "What Happens in Vegas Dies in Boston." Jordan and Woody (Jill Hennessy, Jerry O'Connell) travel to Vegas to investigate the death of an airplane passenger who landed with $3 million handcuffed to him. James Caan, Josh Duhamel, Vanessa Marcil and Molly Sims make crossover appearances.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Law & Order

Refreshingly, "Sects" doesn't rip its plot from the headlines; rather, it lifts it gently. And what a story it is! Pedophilic Murder! Suicide! Religious cult! The killing of a woman by troubled young man (guest star Austin Lysy) leads Green and Fontana (Jesse L. Martin, Dennis Farina) to a cult that preaches sex between adults and children.

9 p.m. on 49-PAX

World Cup Comedy

Last week's winning team, Super Colliders, returns to compete with two new squads — Biscuits N' Gravy and Moist Towlettes — as the improvisational comedy competition continues. This new episode has them acting out such scenes as a happy hour for nannies, a "Cribs"-style renovation of a corporate mailroom and a high-school newspaper documentary by Michael Moore.
